

The background of the poster is a vibrant, colorful collage of musical elements. It features a prominent blue treble clef on the left side, with a blue musical staff curving across the bottom. The staff contains several notes in various colors (blue, green, purple, yellow). Scattered throughout the background are numerous individual musical notes and symbols in a variety of colors, including blue, green, yellow, purple, and pink. The overall aesthetic is bright and celebratory, with a soft, glowing light effect behind the text.
